READINGS FOR HOME DEVOTIONS; JUNE 17-22, 2019

Monday - 1 Peter Chapter 1 God's Spirit is speaking to us as He did many years ago to His pilgrims dispersed in the Middle East. They needed bolstering in God's ABC's because Jesus-haters had persecuted them. [Christians in foreign lands are still suffering for the same reason.] Since tribulation has always been on God's agenda, "get a grip"! God has not deserted you, so don't renege on God. You cost God too much for Him to let you slip under His radar. Since you are God's children, enjoy your time together. That's the word of the day.

Tuesday - Chapter 2 God expects you to turn up your nose at trash and rather nurse on His Word. God has selected you out of the rubble of society to become building-blocks in erecting a spiritual house based on Jesus, the corner-stone. Appreciate who you are, and conduct yourselves accordingly—where ever you are living and whatever your situation. If you are a domestic slave, you have special opportunities to represent Jesus, following His example of self-sacrifice in order to serve the higher good. Heed His guidance!

Wednesday – Chapter 3:1-17 If you are a married woman, you have special responsibilities, and so do husbands. In sum, be generous in all your endeavors and in every setting; and even while you put yourself in second place to others, be ready to put yourself forward when the opportunity presents itself—rather, put Jesus forward via conduct that serves Him—and take the consequences.

Thursday – 1 Peter 3:18-22 Back to some ABC's: We live to honor Jesus, who suffered for our sins, was crucified, died, was buried, and even made a side-trip to lord it over hell. By the way, when God washed the filth of the first world off via the Great Flood, that's a good picture of Baptism, whereby God washes away our inherited filth. Due to His grace, we receive a good standing with God via the resurrection of Jesus Christ, who not only arose to life from temporary status among the dead, He also ascended into heaven, from where He will return to judge both those still living and those who have already died.

Friday - Chapter 4 Now, just remember that you are pilgrims passing through hostile territory, where you won't be appreciated by those who don't understand you. You can afford to be generous with your God-given aptitudes for serving others (1-11). You Christians are headed for tougher times, which is normal and a blessing, for it's proof that the Spirit of God is resting upon you. God has not deserted you, and He never will, for He is a faithful Creator (12-19).

Saturday - Chapter 5 Clergymen, you are called to serve, just as all of us are dedicated to help one another survive. Remember, God has put you into training in order to strengthen you in the true grace of God in which you stand. God be with you till we meet again – whether here on Earth or at Jesus' feet. Amen.

FOR THE GRACE OF
GOD HAS APPEARED,
BRINGING SALVATION
FOR ALL ...

THE OFFERINGS OF THANKFUL HEARTS

THE OFFERING HYMN:

(TLH 442:1-2)

Lord of Glory, who hast bought us With Thy life-blood as the price,
Never grudging for the lost ones That tremendous sacrifice;
And with that hast freely given Blessings countless as the sand
To the unthankful and the evil With Thine own unsparing hand;
Grant us hearts, dear Lord, to yield Thee Gladly, freely, of Thine own;
With the sunshine of Thy goodness Melt our thankless hearts of stone
Till our cold and selfish natures, Warmed by Thee, at length believe
That more happy and more blessed 'Tis to give than to receive.

CONGREGATION: (Sung) "Amen."

FIRST LESSON:

TITUS 1:1-16

Paul, a bondservant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect and the acknowledgment of the truth which accords with godliness, <sup>2</sup>in hope of eternal life which God, who cannot lie, promised before time began, <sup>3</sup>but has in due time manifested His word through preaching, which was committed to me according to the commandment of God our Savior; <sup>4</sup>To Titus, a true son in our common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Savior.

<sup>5</sup>For this reason I left you in Crete, that you should set in order the things that are lacking, and appoint elders in every city as I commanded you—<sup>6</sup>if a man is blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children not accused of dissipation or insubordination. <sup>7</sup>For a bishop must be blameless, as a steward of God, not self-willed, not quick-tempered, not given to wine, not violent, not greedy for money, <sup>8</sup>but hospitable, a lover of what is good, sober-minded, just, holy, self-controlled, <sup>9</sup>holding fast the faithful word as he has been taught, that he may be able, by sound doctrine, both to exhort and convict those who contradict.

<sup>10</sup>For there are many insubordinate, both idle talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision, <sup>11</sup>whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole households, teaching things which they ought not, for the sake of dishonest gain. <sup>12</sup>One of them, a prophet of their own, said, “Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons.” <sup>13</sup>This testimony is true. Therefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith, <sup>14</sup>not giving heed to Jewish fables and commandments of men who turn from the truth. <sup>15</sup>To the pure all things are pure, but to those who are defiled and unbelieving nothing is pure; but even their mind and conscience are defiled. <sup>16</sup>They profess to know God, but in works they deny Him, being abominable, disobedient, and disqualified for every good work. *

EPISTLE LESSON:

TITUS 2-3

But as for you, speak the things which are proper for sound doctrine: <sup>2</sup>that the older men be sober, reverent, temperate, sound in faith, in love, in patience; <sup>3</sup>the older women likewise, that they be reverent in behavior, not slanderers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things—<sup>4</sup>that they admonish the young women to love their husbands, to love their children, <sup>5</sup>to be discreet, chaste, homemakers, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God may not be blasphemed.

<sup>6</sup>Likewise, exhort the young men to be sober-minded, <sup>7</sup>in all things showing yourself to be a pattern of good works; in doctrine showing integrity, reverence, incorruptibility, <sup>8</sup>sound speech that cannot be condemned, that one who is an opponent may be ashamed, having nothing evil to say of you.

<sup>9</sup>Exhort bondservants to be obedient to their own masters, to be well pleasing in all things, not answering back, <sup>10</sup>not pilfering, but showing all good fidelity, that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Savior in all things.

<sup>11</sup>For the grace of God that brings salvation has appeared to all men, <sup>12</sup>teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly in the present age, <sup>13</sup>looking for the blessed hope and glorious appearing of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, <sup>14</sup>who gave Himself for us, that He might redeem us from every lawless deed and purify for Himself His own special people, zealous for good works.

<sup>15</sup>Speak these things, exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no one despise you.

Remind them to be subject to rulers and authorities, to obey, to be ready for every good work, <sup>2</sup>to speak evil of no one, to be peaceable, gentle, showing all humility to all men. <sup>3</sup>For we ourselves were also once foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving various lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful and hating one another. <sup>4</sup>But when the kindness and the love of God our Savior toward man appeared, <sup>5</sup>not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to His mercy He saved us, through the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Spirit, <sup>6</sup>whom He poured out on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Savior, <sup>7</sup>that having been justified by His grace we should become heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

<sup>8</sup>This is a faithful saying, and these things I want you to affirm constantly, that those who have believed in God should be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable to men.

<sup>9</sup>But avoid foolish disputes, genealogies, contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and useless. <sup>10</sup>Reject a divisive man after the first and second admonition, <sup>11</sup>knowing that such a person is warped and sinning, being self-condemned.

<sup>12</sup>When I send Artemas to you, or Tychicus, be diligent to come to me at Nicopolis, for I have decided to spend the winter there. <sup>13</sup>Send Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their journey with haste, that they may lack nothing. <sup>14</sup>And let our people also learn to maintain good works, to meet urgent needs, that they may not be unfruitful.

<sup>15</sup>All who are with me greet you. Greet those who love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen. *

THE GRADUAL -- (A Prayer for the Sunday read responsively)

Pastor: The LORD reigns; Let the people's bow before Him;

Congregation: Let the earth bow down and worship Him. Hallelujah!

P: Praise be to You, O Lord, in the heavenly places;

C: Let all men praise You forever and ever. Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

C: Enable us to praise and glorify You forever! Hallelujah!

(Sung) Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

"Glory be to Thee, O Lord!"

GOSPEL LESSON:

MATTHEW 28:18-20

<sup>18</sup>And Jesus came and spoke to them, saying, "All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. <sup>19</sup>Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, <sup>20</sup>teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." Amen. *

"Praise be to Thee, O Christ!"

CONFESSION OF FAITH:

APOSTLES CREED (PG. 12)

HYMN: 261 – "Lord, Keep Us Steadfast in Thy Word"

SERMON:

TITUS 2:11-15

<sup>11</sup>For the grace of God that brings salvation has appeared to all men, <sup>12</sup>teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly in the present age, <sup>13</sup>looking for the blessed hope and glorious appearing of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, <sup>14</sup>who gave Himself for us, that He might redeem us from every lawless deed and purify for Himself His own special people, zealous for good works. <sup>15</sup>Speak these things, exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no one despise you. *

TITUS

GENERAL

When Paul returned to Jerusalem after his first missionary journey, he brought with him a young Gentile, named Titus (Galatians 2:1-3; Titus 1:4). We know very little about the person of Titus, other than that he was a Gentile (non-Jew). One thing that separates Titus from Timothy was that unlike Timothy, Paul refused to have Titus circumcised, not because of offense, but because many were demanding that all be circumcised for salvation. For this reason, Titus was a living example of Christian Liberty.

Titus was also a companion of Paul during his 3rd Missionary Journey. After the first letter to the Corinthians was sent, Titus was sent to Corinth to check on the congregation and to ask them to give to the collection for the poor in Jerusalem (2 Corinthians 8:1-7). Titus was to rejoin Paul at Troas, but when he did not find Titus there, he continued on to Macedonia where he rejoined Titus (2 Corinthians 2:12-13). Titus gave a good report (2 Corinthians 7:5-7; 13ff). It was then that Paul sent Titus back to Corinth with Paul's second letter (2 Corinthians 12:18).

We hear nothing more in the New Testament about Titus until the book of Titus (Titus 1:1-4). After Paul had been freed from his first imprisonment, Paul went to the island of Crete and established a number of congregations (Titus 1:5). It may be that the nucleus of these congregations had heard of Christ in Jerusalem on Pentecost (Acts 2:11). However, when he departed, Paul placed Titus in charge to take care of the churches. While Timothy was to help restore order in established congregations, Titus was to help establish order in young congregations. After Titus accomplished this, he was to be replaced by Tychicus or Artemas and to rejoin Paul for the winter in Nicopolis in Greece (Titus 3:12).

The last we hear of Titus in 2 Timothy 4:10, where it is said that he had departed for Dalmatia. Tradition says that he returned to become the bishop of Crete at an old age and died peacefully.
