READINGS FOR DEVOTIONS JANUARY 27-FEBRUARY 1, 2020

Monday - Isaiah 9:1-4 The northern frontier had been invaded so often that it was called Galilee of the Gentiles. Jesus favored that heathenish locale for His ministrations for the good reason that those folks were doomed without His intervention. So, the light of His loving mercy shone on them (2). Praise God, for Jesus has conquered heathen hearts all over the globe, and those hearts rejoice that Messiah has removed their burden of sin. We understand.

Tuesday - Matthew 4:12-25 presents the itinerary of Jesus up north, where Isaiah knew He would be going (12-17). Was Jesus successful? Yes, for one-by-one men joined His group and left their secular occupations behind. Onward and forward! With these men as His witnesses and co-workers, Jesus healed souls and bodies. That's what people needed, and it made Him popular (23-25).

Wednesday - 1 Corinthians 1:10-17 The Christian congregation of Corinth proves that enlightenment is an on-going project. For example, members who had been instructed by Apollos favored him; others favored Paul for similar reason; and Peter was favored by others. That attitude was short-changing God, who had sent ALL their shepherds to serve them. [When you have winners, you also have losers—and Christians shouldn't play that game.] Lord, have mercy!

Thursday - Psalm 27 God had enlightened psalmist David to realize he was safe in God's hands (1-3), and he wanted to stay there (4-6). What brought David to that conviction? Evidence. Evidence that God had supported him in the past (7-9), so he had good reason to face the future with the same confidence (10). Dear reader, keep on with your learning (11) and depending (14)!

Friday - Matthew 5:43-48 We keep on being enlightened by the Holy Spirit as we delve into God's Word, and in His Sermon on the Mount Jesus gives us some correctives on true religion. Is it a tough assignment for us who understand and appreciate God's love— to have sympathetic, caring love for folks whose souls are riddled with hate for Christians and steaming against Christian influences? It's contrary to human nature, but God has shared His own nature with us, which enables His children to face difficult situations as He has always faced them—with sympathy, with compassion, with love to rescue souls headed for hell. That's godly love, and it's perfect love (48).

Saturday - Acts 7:17-36 God knows how to manipulate events and people to fit His plans, but humans are slow learners; it took eighty years to straighten Moses out. Note: Moses had to become a follower before he could become a leader—and when God did send a ruler and deliverer to the Jews, that's the man whom the Jews rejected (35). Stephen was not bad-mouthing Moses, but defending him (36). Good testimony; good defense. Stay tuned.

Now when Jesus had entered Capernaum, a centurion came to Him, pleading with Him, saying, "Lord, my servant is lying at home paralyzed, dreadfully tormented."

-- Matthew 8:5-6

CALVARY LUTHERAN CHURCH

Third Sunday after the Epiphany.....January 26, 2020

CALVARY INCLEMENT WEATHER POLICY

“In the event of a snowstorm of a serious nature, the Pastor in conjunction with the President and Vice President will determine whether or not to hold services. This will be done based on conditions and the official statements and recommendations of local authorities. This will be done recognizing that the government authorities have been established by God, (cf. Romans 13:1ff) and ought to be obeyed unless their commands conflict with God’s Word.”

“In the event that services are cancelled, a call tree shall be established whereby the membership will be notified promptly.”

While the ‘call tree’ has not yet been established, please note that in the event of a cancellation the Radio Results Network family of Radio Stations (100.3 The Point; The Maverick 96.7; The Bay 94.9, GLQ 97.1, Kool 105.5) and WLUC TV6 are notified and will relay our cancellation and a post will be made on our Facebook Page. EPISTLE LESSON:

HEBREWS 11:1-16

Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. ² For by it the elders obtained a good testimony.

³ By faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that the things which are seen were not made of things which are visible.

⁴ By faith Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, through which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts; and through it he being dead still speaks.

⁵ By faith Enoch was taken away so that he did not see death, “and was not found, because God had taken him”; for before he was taken he had this testimony, that he pleased God. ⁶ But without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him.

⁷ By faith Noah, being divinely warned of things not yet seen, moved with godly fear, prepared an ark for the saving of his household, by which he condemned the world and became heir of the righteousness which is according to faith.

⁸ By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to the place which he would receive as an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he was going. ⁹ By faith he dwelt in the land of promise as in a foreign country, dwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise; ¹⁰ for he waited for the city which has foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

¹¹ By faith Sarah herself also received strength to conceive seed, and she bore a child when she was past the age, because she judged Him faithful who had promised. ¹² Therefore from one man, and him as good as dead, were born as many as the stars of the sky in multitude—innumerable as the sand which is by the seashore.

¹³ These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off were assured of them, embraced them and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. ¹⁴ For those who say such things declare plainly that they seek a homeland. ¹⁵ And truly if they had called to mind that country from which they had come out, they would have had opportunity to return. ¹⁶ But now they desire a better, that is, a heavenly country. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for He has prepared a city for them. *

GOSPEL LESSON:LUKE 17:5-10

⁵ And the apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith."

⁶ So the Lord said, "If you have faith as a mustard seed, you can say to this mulberry tree, 'Be pulled up by the roots and be planted in the sea,' and it would obey you." ⁷ And which of you, having a servant plowing or tending sheep, will say to him when he has come in from the field, 'Come at once and sit down to eat'? ⁸ But will he not rather say to him, 'Prepare something for my supper, and gird yourself and serve me till I have eaten and drunk, and afterward you will eat and drink'? ⁹ Does he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? I think not. ¹⁰ So likewise you, when you have done all those things which you are commanded, say, 'We are unprofitable servants. We have done what was our duty to do.' " *

CONFESSION OF FAITH: THE APOSTLES CREED (WS Pg. 15)

HYMN: 134 - "What Child Is This?"

SERMON:MATTHEW 8:5-13

⁵ Now when Jesus had entered Capernaum, a centurion came to Him, pleading with Him, ⁶ saying, "Lord, my servant is lying at home paralyzed, dreadfully tormented." ⁷ And Jesus said to him, "I will come and heal him." ⁸ The centurion answered and said, "Lord, I am not worthy that You should come under my roof. But only speak a word, and my servant will be healed. ⁹ For I also am a man under authority, having soldiers under me. And I say to this one, 'Go,' and he goes; and to another, 'Come,' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it." ¹⁰ When Jesus heard it, He marveled, and said to those who followed, "Assuredly, I say to you, I have not found such great faith, not even in Israel!" ¹¹ And I say to you that many will come from east and west, and sit down with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven. ¹² But the sons of the kingdom will be cast out into outer darkness. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth." ¹³ Then Jesus said to the centurion, "Go your way; and as you have believed, so let it be done for you." And his servant was healed that same hour.

THE OFFERINGS OF THANKFUL HEARTS

THE OFFERING HYMN:

(TLH 127:3-4)

As they offered gifts most rare At Thy cradle, rude and bare,
So may we with holy joy, Pure and free from sin's alloy,
All our costliest treasures bring, Christ, to Thee, our heavenly King!
Holy Jesus, every day Keep us in the narrow way;
And when earthly things are past. Bring our ransomed souls at last
Where they need no star to guide, Where no clouds Thy glory hide.
