OLD TESTAMENT LESSON: ISAIAH 6:1-8

In the year that King Uzziah died I saw the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up; and the train of his robe filled the temple. ² Above him stood the seraphim. Each had six wings: with two he covered his face, and with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew. ³ And one called to another and said:

"Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts;
 the whole earth is full of his glory!"

⁴ And the foundations of the thresholds shook at the voice of him who called, and the house was filled with smoke. ⁵ And I said: "Woe is me! For I am lost; for I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips; for my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!"

DAILY BIBLE READINGS FOR DEVOTIONS FEBRUARY 7-12, 2022

Monday - Isaiah 6:1-8 Seated on an elevated throne in His Temple, attended by winged seraphim bursting with energy to shout His praises as Architect of the Universe, God displays even greater glory by the way He deals with unclean sinners such as Isaiah. Since God has reached down from His throne and cleansed our mouths--can we not serve (with Isaiah) as God's spokesmen?

Tuesday - Luke 5:1-11 We switch channels to a sunny beach where fishermen are cleaning their net-gear. After explaining God's love for them, Jesus took another step—to convince those who need convincing that He holds the whole wide world in His hands. Simon reacted as we would: "I'm not fit to serve Jesus; I'm scared to even try (8-10)." Jesus has other plans. Stay tuned.

Wednesday - Romans 10:12-17 Although God's contact person has often been one of His angels, more regularly He uses us mortals. It seems obvious that saving faith is created via God's gospel—which needs to be heard and absorbed after being delivered via suitable carriers. You and I are like inexpensive piping to carry His water of Life to parched souls. Praise the Lord, His water quenches spiritual thirst, and we are happy to serve as the piping (17).

Thursday - Psalm 31:14-24 We may not have had the troubles which David had, but enough to bring us to our knees and cast ourselves on God's mercies (14-16). God's generous nature is warm enough to offer Himself as our hiding place (19-20)--and not just to put up with us, but to put us up in high esteem. Because the Lord preserves us, we have godly courage and spiritual vitality.

Friday - Matthew 4:18-25 Simon, Andrew, James, and John fade into the back-ground during the next weeks. Now, why is that? Because Jesus was teaching by example, and they were absorbing. They watched and listened, learning what it meant to follow Jesus. We learn that way, too, and are among the multitudes to whom Jesus revealed His Kingdom's blessings (23-25).

Saturday - Acts 9:13-17 is not the record of an "out-of-body" experience, but more like a conversation—wherein a servant voices an objection to the directives of the person in authority. Here Jesus shrugs off Ananias' objection and calls Saul a "chosen vessel of Mine, to bear My name/reputation to foreigners; I intend to set him straight about suffering for My name's sake." Ananias submitted to God's agenda, found Saul, and greeted him as "brother." What a surprise that must have been to Saul, who had been so nervous and his stomach had been in knots for three days and nights. Saul was learning that God is gracious, generous, loving, forgiving, merciful, etc. We know the rest. Praise the Lord!

Jesus spoke to them ...

⁶Then one of the seraphim flew to me, having in his hand a burning coal that he had taken with tongs from the altar. ⁷And he touched my mouth and said: "Behold, this has touched your lips; your guilt is taken away, and your sin atoned for."

⁸And I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" Then I said, "Here I am! Send me."

EPISTLE LESSON:

1 CORINTHIANS 14:12-20

¹²So with yourselves, since you are eager for manifestations of the Spirit, strive to excel in building up the church.

¹³Therefore, one who speaks in a tongue should pray that he may interpret. ¹⁴For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays but my mind is unfruitful. ¹⁵What am I to do? I will pray with my spirit, but I will pray with my mind also; I will sing praise with my spirit, but I will sing with my mind also. ¹⁶Otherwise, if you give thanks with your spirit, how can anyone in the position of an outsider say "Amen" to your thanksgiving when he does not know what you are saying? ¹⁷For you may be giving thanks well enough, but the other person is not being built up. ¹⁸I thank God that I speak in tongues more than all of you. ¹⁹Nevertheless, in church I would rather speak five words with my mind in order to instruct others, than ten thousand words in a tongue.

²⁰Brothers, do not be children in your thinking. Be infants in evil, but in your thinking be mature. **

THE GRADUAL -- (A Prayer for the Sunday read responsively)

Pastor: All the world will fear the name of the LORD;

Congregation: All the kings of the earth His Glory.

Pastor: The LORD shall build up Zion,

Congregation: Then He shall appear in glory. Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

Pastor: The LORD reigns, let the earth rejoice;

Congregation: Let the multitude of islands be glad! Hallelujah!

(Sung) Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

"Glory be to Thee, O Lord!"

GOSPEL LESSON:

LUKE 5:1-11

On one occasion, while the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he was standing by the lake of Gennesaret, ²and he saw two boats by the lake, but the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets.

³ Getting into one of the boats, which was Simon's, he asked him to put out a little from the land. And he sat down and taught the people from the boat. ⁴ And when he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch." ⁵ And Simon answered, "Master, we toiled all night and took nothing! But at your word I will let down the nets." ⁶ And when they had done this, they enclosed a large number of fish, and their nets were breaking. ⁷ They signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. ⁸ But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord." ⁹ For he and all who were with him were astonished at the catch of fish that they had taken, ¹⁰ and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men." ¹¹ And when they had brought their boats to land, they left everything and followed him.

"Praise be to Thee, O Christ!"

CONFESSION OF FAITH:

THE NICENE CREED

HYMN: 344 - "Come, Let Us Join Our Cheerful Songs"

SERMON:

JOHN 6:15-21

¹⁵ Therefore when Jesus perceived that they were about to come and take Him by force to make Him king, He departed again to the mountain by Himself alone. ¹⁶ Now when evening came, His disciples went down to the sea, ¹⁷ got into the boat, and went over the sea toward Capernaum. And it was already dark, and Jesus had not come to them. ¹⁸ Then the sea arose because a great wind was blowing. ¹⁹ So when they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the sea and drawing near the boat; and they were afraid. ²⁰ But He said to them, "It is I; do not be afraid." ²¹ Then they willingly received Him into the boat, and immediately the boat was at the land where they were going.

Like all medicines, of course, it must be used at the right time for the right purpose by the right person, lest it do more harm than good. Those uncomfortable with coming forward and receiving the bread/wine may obtain a single use set from the back table in the fellowship hall.

We ask all visitors to speak to the pastor before taking the sacrament, especially if you have not communed here before. Those who come forward are asked to put out their hands for the bread and choose their own individual cup.

PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP

PSALM 85

¹ LORD, you were favorable to your land; you restored the fortunes of Jacob. ²You forgave the iniquity of your people; you covered all their sin. Selah ³You withdrew all your wrath; you turned from your hot anger.

⁴Restore us again, O God of our salvation, and put away your indignation toward us! ⁵Will you be angry with us forever? Will you prolong your anger to all generations? ⁶Will you not revive us again, that your people may rejoice in you? ⁷Show us your steadfast love, O LORD, and grant us your salvation.

⁸Let me hear what God the LORD will speak, for he will speak peace to his people, to his saints; but let them not turn back to folly. ⁹Surely his salvation is near to those who fear him, that glory may dwell in our land.

¹⁰Steadfast love and faithfulness meet; righteousness and peace kiss each other. ¹¹Faithfulness springs up from the ground, and righteousness looks down from the sky. ¹²Yes, the LORD will give what is good, and our land will yield its increase. ¹³Righteousness will go before him and make his footsteps a way. **
